LOOK WHO JUST TURNED 21

After over a decade of working in hospitality, I decided to take my passion for helping people and apply that to my real estate career. I've cultivated so many different relationships with colleagues, community members, and leaders alike. Owning a house is the beginning of creating security and building generational wealth-creating your dream of "home". That generational wealth continues through savvy investing in recreational and lifestyle properties to be enjoyed for years to come. I want to work with people to achieve this feeling.

Because of that hospitality background, I bring the understanding of creating a fun experience for my clients to the real estate industry. For most, these are the biggest purchases of their life, and the days are over that this purchase is just a transaction.

When I'm not working, I enjoy spending time with my daughter. I am an outdoorsman. My dog Blu is a great hunting companion. Hunting with friends and family is a frequent hobby. I look forward to creating real estate experiences in Fergus Falls, Otter Tail, Douglas, Pope and surrounding areas.
