PLEASE JOIN US TO SUPPORT AND HELP JARAD THIELE
ANYTHING YOU CAN DONATE WILL HELP

In August of 2021, Jarad was diagnosed with metastatic melanoma. The illness quickly progressed and by October 2021 he was told he had stage IV melanoma. He doctored and was treated with radiation and chemo. He was told he would be on chemo pills most likely the rest of his life.

After 13 months of receiving treatment, he returned to work even though he was still in quite a bit of pain many days. On August 28, 2023 after work Jarad suddenly has a severe headache and lost some of his vision. He went to the local ER and learned that he had a massive brain bleed. He was then life flighted to Fargo and found out he has a small lesion on his brain from the melanoma. He has brain surgery a couple days later to remove the lesion and stop the bleeding.

Since that incident Jarad's vision is still impaired and he has done through another round of radiation and will forever be required to do immunotherapy every few weeks. Jarad will not be able to return to work due to the complications of metastatic melanoma.

Traveling On Ice

The DNR does not measure ice thickness on Minnesota lakes. Your safety is your responsibility.

Before traveling on ice...

- Let someone know where you are going and when you expect to return.
- Evaluate ice conditions and possible hazards.
- Know your plan of escape and have your safety gear accessible.
- Measure ice thickness.
- No matter how cautious you are when traveling on ice, there is always a risk of falling through. By following the ice thickness guidelines and being prepared with safety gear and an escape plan, your risk will be reduced.

On foot

Mom with four kids, two are skating and two on in a sled.While ice fishing is the most common activity we see on frozen waters in Minnesota, that is not the only way to explore our frozen lakes on foot. Many Minnesotans enjoy snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, ice skating, iceboating, windsurfing, and kiteboarding among other activities on the ice. Communities around the state hold annual winter festivals with a huge range of out-of-the-box, family-friendly activities on the ice. Visit Explore Minnesota (link is external) to find a new frozen festival in your area.

Recommendations:

- Wait for at least 4 inches of solid, clear ice.
- Wear a foam life jacket or other buoyant gear.
- Carry ice picks and make sure they are always accessible.

On a snowmobile or ATV

Snowmobiles are the smallest motorized vehicle that we see on the ice and one of the safest options if you choose to drive on the ice. Still, people break through the ice every year on snowmobiles, and on average, there are about two fatal breaks through each year on a snowmobile or ATV.

Recently, we see more and more side-by-side ATVs on the ice because they can comfortably hold at least two people sitting side-by-side and still have room to haul equipment. While these larger vehicles can be a great option, it is important to remember that they weigh more than the standard snowmobile or ATV, and therefore require thicker ice.

Recommendations:

- Snowmobile or small ATV - Wait for 5 to 7 inches of solid, clear ice.
- Side-by-side ATV - Wait for 7 to 8 inches of solid, clear ice.
- Wear a foam life jacket or other buoyant gear.
- Carry ice picks and make sure they are always accessible.
- Don't override your headlights.

In a car, truck, or SUV

When solid, clear ice gets thick enough, it can support the weight of a vehicle. However, it's important to remember that ice thickness can vary drastically on a single body of water. Driving an enclosed vehicle on ice always involves added risk.

If you choose to drive a car, truck, or SUV on the ice, be sure to follow these recommendations.

Recommendations:

- Stay on plowed ice roads whenever possible.
- Talk to local experts about ice conditions and known hazards.
- Roll down windows and unlock doors.
- Bring a life jacket or buoyant gear and ice picks in your car. Do NOT wear the life jacket or buoyant gear inside your vehicle. It could make escaping the vehicle very difficult if you break through the ice.
- Have a simple emergency escape plan you have discussed with your passengers.
- Don't override your headlights.
- Avoid pressure ridges, channels, and under bridges.
- Park at least 50 feet away from other vehicles and move your vehicle every two hours.

Overriding your headlights

SUV on a frozen lake with the front end in a water hole. It is never a good idea to drive too fast on the ice, but it is especially dangerous at night or in blizzard conditions. If you drive too fast at night, it may cause you to override your headlights, meaning by the time your headlights illuminate an obstacle in your path, you will not have enough time to stop.

At even 30 miles per hour, it can take a much longer distance to stop on ice than your headlights shine. Many fatal snowmobile through-the-ice accidents occur because the machine was traveling too fast for the operator to stop when the headlamp illuminated the hole in the ice. Another common obstacle for snowmobiles is pressure ridges which can be hard to see during both day and night. Colliding with a solid wall of ice can cause serious injury or death.

Each Otter Tail Power employee impacts our customers and communities in how we deliver reliable, cost-effective, environmentally responsible electricity. In this role, you'll collaborate with Communications team members and business partners to develop and distribute messages via internal and external channels.

You thrive in this role if you enjoy:

- Processes and systems that contribute to communication planning.
- Building relationships with internal and external stakeholders.
- Working as part of a team to ensure alignment with overall company communications strategy.

Qualifications:

If you have experience in effective writing that connects with multiple audiences, we want to hear from you! Our industry is rapidly changing, so come prepared with:

- A knowledge base in tracking schedules, processes, and budgets.
- The ability to handle complexities in queue among multiple channels, content creators, and/or agencies and effectively recommend solutions.

- Demonstrated flexibility and a willingness to explore different paths to achieve an outcome.

Basic HTML is preferred but not required.

Selected candidates will be required to complete a pre-interview assessment.

Offering:

We believe employment is a partnership and we expect excellence from our talented employees. To support our employees and help drive their career experience and goals, we offer:

- Competitive wage and benefit packages, including:
 - Employee stock ownership options.
 - Retirement savings fund with employer match.
 - Health insurance plan options.

- Career and professional development opportunities, including:
 - Leadership development programs.
 - An online course catalog with a wide variety of leadership training options.
 - Mentorship from current leaders.
- Safety, technical, and compliance training.
- Access to mental health support from the experts at SupportLinc.

If this sounds like a great fit for you, apply today at the Otter Tail Power Company Jobs page. We'll accept applications through January 2, 2024.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status.

POSITION: CONTRACT SPECIALIST
LOCATION: Fergus Falls, Minnesota

Description: At Otter Tail Power, our employees help us to serve the communities we support by producing reliable, affordable, and environmentally responsible electricity. Our employees' impact can take many forms. In this role, the Contract Specialist will be a highly involved and critical team member in completing business agreements and regulatory filings for projects to allow Otter Tail Power Company to continue to meet its mission.

You'll love this role if you enjoy:

- Collaborating with internal stakeholders and external industry peers to coordinate duties, tasks, and timelines to complete business agreements and regulatory filings for projects.
- Developing agreements, regulatory filings, reports, and presentations for various projects.
- Guiding projects through the necessary processes and advising personnel on processes required.
- Leading continuous improvement strategy to improve processes and build efficiencies.
- Evaluating risks, leading strategies, and tracking accountabilities of agreements and regulatory filings.

Qualifications:

We're seeking candidates with a wide range of skills who love managing structure, details and inter-departmental collaboration while aligning with our values: Integrity, Safety, Community, Resourcefulness, Customer Service and People. Some examples of what we're looking for include:

- There's a lot of change in our industry so a positive, can-do attitude and a continuous improvement mindset is important to support the various projects and teams you'll work with.

- Excellent communication, including writing, collaboration, and interpersonal skills to interact with internal stakeholders, external industry peers, and customers.
- Attention to details and the ability to define accountabilities, resources, and deadlines are required for success.
- Experience in developing and managing multiple processes, procedures and documentation will help you launch into the role.
- A B.S. degree in business, engineering, legal studies, or relevant work experience.

Selected candidates will be required to complete a pre-interview assessment.

Offering:

We believe employment is a partnership and we expect excellence from our talented employees. To support our employees and help drive their career experience and goals.

- Competitive wage & benefit package.
 - Employee stock ownership options

- Retirement savings fund with employer match
- Health insurance plan options

- Training – our average employee has access to hours in training and development each year! This includes safety – one of our 5 values and key to our success – technical, compliance and developmental training.
- Career development is critical to our long-term success. Otter Tail Power employees have opportunities to participate in various leadership development programs, gain access to an a la carte online leadership course catalog, receive mentorship from current leaders and more!
- Access to mental health support from the experts at SupportLinc.

Apply online at www.otpc.com. We'll accept applications through January 5, 2024.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status.
