Donations to the Luke Mertz Benefit Fund are also being accepted at the Fergus Falls Branch of Bell Bank

In April 2024, Luke Mertz was diagnosed with glioblastoma, stage four cancer. Glioblastoma is a type of cancer that starts as a growth of cells in the brain or spinal cord. Luke's tumor was in the left occipital region of the brain which affects eyesight. He had surgery at Mayo to remove the tumor in May, 2024. Several rounds of chemo therapy and radiation followed which he finished in November, 2024. They have to return every couple of months for tests and lab work. All proceeds from the benefit breakfast will go to help defray the cost of insurance co-pays and expenses for trips to Mayo Clinic for follow-up treatment.

Luke works for Ziegler CAT but has to shorten his hours and Sarah for Otter Tail Power Company. They have three children Leeland, 15, Adelynn, 13 and Jasper, 10.

Joyce E. Anderson

Joyce Evelyn Anderson, 98, of Fergus Falls, Minnesota passed away early Monday, February 17 2025, at Pioneer Care under the loving care of Vivie Hospice and Pioneer staff. Joyce was also surrounded by the loving members of her family during her final days before going to be with her Lord Jesus Christ. Her memorial service is set for 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 8, 2025, at the Glende-Nilson Funeral Home in Fergus Falls, Minnesota. There will be a visitation one hour prior.

Pastor Kevin Patch presiding. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Karen, or donations may be made to either PioneerCare Foundation Greatest Need Fund, Lake Region Cancer Center, or to Vivie Hospice.

Joyce Evelyn Thorstenson was born on August 6, 1926, in Erhards Grove Township near Erhard, Minnesota, to Elmer and Josephine (Lyngstad) Thorstenson. She attended school in rural Erhard and was confirmed at the Tonseth Lutheran Church on September 15, 1940. Joyce married Raymond Anderson on September 15, 1943.

Joyce was a loving mother and grandmother, celebrating the major events in their lives with open houses for confirmations, graduations, bridal showers, wedding receptions, etc. Joyce liked to knit/crochet baby blankets and dish wash cloths for family and friends. Joyce enjoyed baking the perfect angel food birthday cakes, and making and eating lefse, sweet soup, and lutefisk! She also loved playing various games like Aggravation, Whist, UNO (except for Star Trek UNO) and Dominos. She was very competitive and stickler for the rules!

Joyce is survived by her children, Karen (Mike) Ingebrigtsen, Waubun, MN, Ron (Mary) Anderson, Fergus Falls, MN, Gary (Ann) Anderson, Bellevue, NE; 11 grandchildren; numerous great and great-great grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Elmer and Josephine; ex-husband, Raymond; children, infant baby Anderson, Richard Anderson, Virgil David Anderson, Janice Jesnowski, Daryl Anderson; siblings, Harvey, Lenny, and Edward Thorstenson; and grandson Brian Anderson.

Burial of her cremains will be a private family ceremony at the Bethlehem Cemetery sometime in late Spring or early Summer.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen.

WHO KNEW

By Bev Johnson, WOT Master Gardener

Almost 80% of the flowers sold in the U.S. are imported, although some of them are grown in California and Pennsylvania. Those 2 states can't grow enough to meet the demand especially since that demand skyrocketed during the coronavirus pandemic.

Since the beginning of the year more than one billion cut flowers have crossed into the U.S. We got roses from Colombia, tulips from the Netherlands and carnations from Ecuador. The U.S. is the world's largest importer of cut flowers. This year Americans spent $27 billion dollars on Valentine's Day alone - a record-breaking sum. The United States imports $150 million dollars worth of flowers every year.

Columbia, with its perfect combination of high altitude and generous sunlight and its low production costs, is uniquely suited to growing flowers. Roses are the most popular flower they grow, but the country boasts an impressive variety of more than 1,000 types of flowers, including chrysanthemums, carnations, lilies, and orchids.

Meanwhile, American growers grapple with labor shortages, rising fertilizer costs, and soaring land costs. Importing flowers is simply cheaper than growing them at home.

The flood of Colombian flowers into the U.S. has been decades in the making. In 1991, congress passed the Andean Trade Preference act. This law eliminated tariffs on several goods from Columbia, Ecuador, Bolivia and Peru. The aim was to shift these nations away from the illicit drug trade toward legitimate industries. The impact was almost instant. In the next 2 years, rose imports from Columbia grew over 30%.

In the years since, the U.S. flower market shows no sign of slowing down and neither do South American flower exporters. Last year nearly 1,700 cargo flights carrying 50,000 tons of flowers left Bogota before last Valentine's Day. This is the equivalent of 150 million standard bouquets.

Flowers harvested in the morning in Columbia can be on sale in Florida that afternoon. After the flower is cut it's a race against time. Immediately after harvesting, the flowers undergo a hydration process then are sent to a warehouse. There they are assembled into bouquets. To extend their lifespan, the workers treat the blooms and package them for shipment. Most of them come through Miami International Airport where they are transferred to cold storage before they are inspected by customs and Border Protection. They look for diseases or pests that may have come with the flowers. They are then transferred to refrigerated trucks that take them to flower shops all over the U.S.

After their long flight, truck ride, and a stint in the flower shop's cooler, you can take home a bit of South America to brighten up your home. To lengthen their life, be sure your car is toasty warm, or have a cooler with a jar of hot water in it to bring your babies home. Just a taste of our frigid air will shorten their life. Run a sink full of warm water and emerge the bouquet up to the bloom for a few minutes. Now, trim the stems off and put your bouquet in a vase with some of the flower extender that come with your flowers. Recut the stems every time you change the water to prolong the blooms' lives. Remember, the longer the stem the more effort it takes to keep the flower hydrated and alive. Try three short bouquets instead of one tall one. Miss Manners says that is O.K. too.

Roasted Pork Loin

3 cloves garlic, minced
1 tablespoon dried rosemary salt and pepper to taste

2 pounds boneless pork loin roast
¼ cup olive oil
½ cup white wine

- Gather all ingredients. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).
- Crush garlic with rosemary, salt, and pepper in a mortar and pestle to make a paste.
- Pierce meat with a sharp knife in several places and press garlic paste into the openings. Rub pork loin with the remaining garlic mixture and olive oil. Set into an oven-safe pan.
- Place pork loin into the preheated oven, turning and basting with pan liquids every 30 minutes. Cook until the pork is no longer pink in the center, 90 minutes to 2 hours. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center should read 145 degrees F (63 degrees C). Remove roast to a platter and keep warm.
- Place pan onto the stove over medium-high heat and pour wine into it. Heat wine and stir to loosen browned bits from the bottom of the pan. Simmer for 3 to 5 minutes.
- Slice pork loin and serve with pan juices.

Slow-cooked Sweet Potato Bake

50g butter, chopped
2 red onions, thinly sliced
2 tsp finely chopped thyme leaves
2 garlic cloves, crushed
pinch ground nutmeg

1kg sweet potato, peeled, very thinly sliced (see notes)
80g gruyere, finely grated
1 cup vegetable stock
1 cup grated mozzarella

- Preheat oven to 200C or 180C fan-forced. Grease a 5 cup ovenproof baking dish.
- Melt butter in a large frying pan over medium-high heat. Cook onion and thyme, stirring, for 5 minutes. Reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring, for 5 minutes or until softened (but not coloured). Stir through garlic and nutmeg and cook for 1 minute or until fragrant. Season.
- Arrange sweet potato in prepared dish, in flat layers, interspersing with onion mixture and half of gruyere. Press down. Pour over vegetable stock. Cover with foil and bake for 1 hour. Remove foil, top with combined mozzarella and remaining gruyere and bake for another 15 minutes or until golden and tender.
