Silent Auction with something for everyone

All Are Welcome!

Tuesday June 24th, 4:30 to 7pm

Augustana Lutheran Church | 308 E Douglas Ave, Fergus Falls, MN

Chad Neuleib has had 10 surgeries over recent years for spinal compression, spinal fusions, cervical instability and spinal cord tethering. His symptoms have included severe back/neck pain, debilitating headaches, blurred vision, non-functioning hands and cognitive issues. He has had multiple CSF (spinal fluid) leaks.

This July, Chad will undergo a complex, life-changing surgery in Rhode Island, involving three surgical teams specializing in tether cord and spinal conditions. The procedure will include additional spinal fusions, as well as a possible dural transplant. The length of his stay and recovery remains uncertain. The road ahead will be long and challenging.

Chad is supported by his wife, Beth, a 21-year employee of the Fergus Falls Police Department, and their two daughters, Hope (18) and Grace (16). Chad and Beth are lifelong community members of the Fergus Falls and Pelican Rapids area.

All proceeds from the benefit will go to help defray the cost of travel expenses and other costs associated with these medical procedures.

Finacial donations can be made directly to the Chad Neuleib Benefit account at FM Bank in Fergus Falls or by scanning the QR Code to be directed to the Neuleib's GoFundMe page.

To donate items for the Silent Auction, call 218-205-6687.
